COMMITTEE REPORTS

Legislative -

Community & Protective Services -

Membership and Pre-retirement Planning - Don Ullmann still challenges members to talk with retirees and ask them to consider joining our association and if they join, the recruiting member will receive a gift certificate to a local restaurant.

Communications, Public Relations & Technology -

Organizational (Nominations, Elections & Bylaws) -

Memorial -

Scholarship - Only one application has been received. The committee will have to approve and we will know outcome at our June meeting.

Sunshine/Concern: Sylvia Capello is moving to Hilliard. We all signed a card for her.

Dr. Robin Rayfield, Executive Director of ORTA, was our guest speaker. His presentation was called “ORTA and STRS - Why Our Relationship Has Changed” and all were given an illustrated handout to follow along. He brought three copies of Ted Siedel’s book titled How To Steal A Lot Of Money - Legally and invited anyone interested to take a copy. Dr. Rayfield gave a very informative presentation and took time to answer questions from the members.

The April program committee -- Linda Buckey, Francene Ogden, Jan Palmer, Debbie Seamster and Lori Tilton -- had the tables decorated with an Easter theme and provided an “Easter Bunny” platter with fresh fruit for all to enjoy with their lunch.

Door prizes (dog and cat puzzles) were awarded to Sandy Carter and Dee Frakes.

Next meeting will be June 9.
